

Sample Aperio Network Schematic

The Aperio solution is fully scalable and fits within almost any network environment up to a global enterprise architecture. Aperio's browser-based interface and server-side installation support every security feature that is enabled on the network, from encrypted SSL transmissions to full VPN support.